God has a special mission in mind for each of us. He has given us the gifts we need to accomplish that mission. We are called to be good stewards by using those gifts to do the work that He has planned for each of us. If we deny our gifts or fail to use them as God calls us to use them, then some part of His work will be left undone.

LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Jesus Christ fulfilled the prophecies and promises of what God had revealed to his Chosen People, the Jews, in the Old Testament. This is why there is such a close connection between Judaism and Catholicism, the world's two revealed religions. In fact, Jesus himself and his closest followers, including the Blessed Virgin Mary and St Paul, were all Jewish. And most of the first Christian communities sprang up in the soil of Jewish communities that were already established in the cities of the Roman Empire. Yet, many of the Jews at the time of Christ did not believe in Jesus; they decided to wait for a different Savior. This is why Christianity and Judaism became separate.

It was painful for St Paul, as he explains in today's Second Reading, to see so many fellow Jews not accepting Jesus as their Savior. But he draws comfort from looking at the situation from God's perspective. The disbelief of some Jews actually created an opportunity to preach about the one true God to non-Jews, people St Paul calls Gentiles, or pagans, who were living in the darkness of natural - not revealed - religion. In other words, St Paul sees God working even through the stubborn disbelief being exhibited by some of his Chosen people. God turns their rejection of him into a means of salvation for the Gentiles. And Paul is also confident that God will somehow, in the end, even be able to rescue his first Chosen People, the Jews, in addition to his second Chosen People, the Church. He doesn't understand fully how God will work this out, but is certain that God's infinite power and mercy will guide history with wisdom and faithfulness. St Paul lives confidently and passionately in the present moment, because he knows that God will take care of the future. We should do the same. We can have long-term confidence in God, because God thinks long-term. It is extremely hard for us to keep this true perspective in mind in today's consumer culture. Subconsciously, this culture is always trying to convince us that every problem we have can be solved simply by buying the right product. None of us really believe that, but that message is constantly bombarding us. And like ocean waves that gradually break down huge rocks, that message tends to erode our faith, our God-centered perspective. How can we stop the erosion? Every Christian alive today must become an expert in prayer. "God's love can only unleash its power when it is allowed to change us from within. We have to let it break through the hard crust of our indifference, our spiritual weariness, our blind conformity to the spirit of this age... "That is why prayer is so important: daily prayer, private prayer in the quiet of our hearts and before the Blessed Sacrament, and liturgical prayer in the heart of the Church... "Jesus is always present in our hearts, quietly waiting for us to be still with him, to hear his voice, to abide in his love, and to receive 'power from on high,' enabling us to be salt and light for our world."

May God bless you,
Fr. Dan

CARTA DE NUESTRO PÁRROCO

Queridos Parroquianos,

Jesús Cristo cumplió las profecías y promesas de lo que Dios habían revelado a su pueblo elegido, los judíos, en el Antiguo Testamento. Por esta razón existe una estrecha relación entre el judaísmo y el catolicismo, las dos religiones reveladas del mundo. De hecho, Jesús y sus seguidores más cercanos, incluyendo a la Santísima Virgen María y San Pablo, eran todos judíos. Y la mayoría de las primeras comunidades cristianas surgieron en la tierra de las comunidades judías ya establecidas en las ciudades del imperio romano. Sin embargo, muchos de los judíos en la época de Cristo no creían en Jesús; decidieron esperar un Salvador diferente. Por esta razón el cristianismo y el judaísmo se convirtió en independiente.

Fue doloroso para San Pablo, como él explica en la segunda lectura de hoy, ver a tantos compañeros judíos no aceptar a Jesús como su Salvador. Pero él llama a la comodidad a mirar la situación desde la perspectiva de Dios. La incredulidad de algunos judíos realmente creo una oportunidad para predicar sobre el único Dios verdadero a los no-judíos, San Pablo llama Gentiles o paganos, a los que vivían en la oscuridad natural de la religión - no revelada. En otras palabras, San Pablo ve incluso a través de la incredulidad obstinada que es exhibida por algunos de su pueblo elegido de Dios. Dios convierte su rechazo de él en un medio de salvación para los Gentiles. Y Pablo también confía en que Dios de alguna manera, al final, incluso será capaz de rescatar su primer pueblo elegido, los judíos, además de su segundo pueblo elegido, la iglesia. Él no entiende completamente cómo Dios funcionará, pero es cierto que el poder infinito de Dios y su misericordia guiará la historia con sabiduría y fidelidad. San Pablo vive con pasión y confianza en el momento presente, porque sabe que Dios se encargará del futuro. Debemos hacer lo mismo. Podemos tener confianza a largo plazo en Dios, porque Dios piensa a largo plazo. Es muy difícil para nosotros tener esta verdadera perspectiva presente en la cultura del consumo de hoy. Inconscientemente, esta cultura siempre está intentando convencernos de que cada problema puede resolverse simplemente comprando el producto correcto. Ninguno de nosotros creemos, pero ese mensaje que constantemente nos está bombardeando. Y como las olas del mar que poco a poco se rompen en las enormes rocas, este mensaje tiende a erosionar nuestra fe, nuestra perspectiva centrada en Dios. ¿Cómo podemos evitar la erosión? Cada cristiano vivo hoy debe convertirse en un experto en la oración. "El amor de Dios sólo puede desatar su poder cuando cambiamos desde adentro. Tenemos que dejarlo romper la dura costra de nuestra indiferencia, nuestro cansancio espiritual, nuestra ciega conformidad al espíritu de esta edad..." "Por eso la oración es tan importante: la oración diaria, la oración privada en la inquietud de nuestros corazones y ante el Santísimo Sacramento y la oración litúrgica en el corazón de la iglesia..." "Jesús está siempre presente en nuestros corazones, tranquilamente esperando a estar todavía con él, escuchar su voz, permanecer en su amor y recibir el 'poder de lo alto,' lo que nos permite ser sal y luz para nuestro mundo."

Que Dios los bendiga. El padre Dan

20º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Que podamos mostrar nuestra gratitud por los grandes dones de Dios a través de nuestra activa participación en el ministerio de la Iglesia de Dios.

"Porque los dones y el llamado de Dios son irrevocables." - Romanos 11:29

Dios tiene una misión especial en mente para cada uno de nosotros. Él nos ha dado los dones que necesitamos para cumplir con esa misión. Estamos llamados a ser buenos administradores usando esos dones para hacer el trabajo que El ha planeado para cada uno de nosotros. Si negamos nuestros dones o no los usamos como Dios nos llama a usarlos, entonces alguna parte de su obra quedará sin hacer.

RESPECT LIFE: "The sufferings caused by chronic or terminal illness cry out for our compassion, a word whose root meaning is to 'suffer with' another person. LAUGH LINES – A small stuffed gorilla in a museum had begun to look a bit shabby and the museum engaged a taxidermist to recondition the animal. The taxidermist took the gorilla to his shop, finishing the job the next evening. So he put the gorilla in the back seat of his car and was returning it to the museum when a cop pulled him up for speeding. While writing the ticket, the cop delivered the usual lecture. He then peered into the gloomy interior of the car. "Who's that?" he barked, shuddering visibly. "Oh, her?" The taxidermist was not without a sense of humor. "Why, that' my wife." Slowly the cop began tearing up the ticket. "Drive on, fella," he whispered, "you've got trouble enough."
